GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The boat is covered by a professional insurance that includes third party liability towards passengers. This does not replace a personal travel insurance that we strongly recommend. The sailing schedule is indicative and depends mainly on weather conditions, passengers input, likings and skills. Of course we will try everything in technical, logistic and organizational ways to achieve the planned trip. Nevertheless we cannot guarantee it (for example departure and arrival harbours and dates) for reasons of safety and force majeure. Changes in the schedule will not lead to any compensation or restitution of fees. We reserve the right to cancel voyages, notably in case of insufficient reservations.

The price includes:

- Crew (skipper and mate)
- Stay on board, berth with sheet, pillow and pillow-cover
- Use of the boats facilities: tender, radio/cassette/CD-player, library, etc.
- Introduction to traditional sailing and navigation
- Life jacket, harness and other security equipment
- All meals taken on board, including wine or other beverage in reasonable quantity (except one dinner for the cruises of 6 days and longer)
- Apéritif
- Harbour dues, fuel

For groups we can offer special arrangements.

The price does not include:

- Transfer to and from the harbour of departure and arrival
- Meals and drinks taken in restaurants, bars, etc.
- Bar on board (extra drinks apart from meals, aperitif, coffee, tea)
- Personal equipment (sleeping bag, oilskins, boots, etc.)
- Personal travel insurance

Traditional sailing also includes, in reasonable and shared amounts, the different tasks on board like helping with cooking, dishes, cleaning, putting order at the end of the journey.

Payment conditions

Payment is made in two parts:

- 30% at the reservation
- the remaining sum two months before departure

Cancellation by the passenger is subject to the following percentages of the fee:

- 30% - more than two months before departure
- 50% - more than one month before departure
- 100% - less than one month before departure
